KUALA LUMPUR: Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB) treated some 300 homeless people in the city to food and donations of basic essentials as part of its homeless engagement programme.

In a statement today, the utility company said the aid, which were presented by TNB president and chief executive officer Datuk Seri Amir Hamzah Azizan and his wife Datin Seri Aidah Abu, on Friday came in various forms including food packs, utensils such as water bottles, food containers, backpacks, pocket money and hair cutting services at Jalan Pahang.

The programme was organised in collaboration with TNB's Islamic Workers' Association (PKPI) and TNB Security Services Department in collaboration with the National Welfare Foundation (YKN), as administrator of the Kuala Lumpur Homeless Transit Centre.

TNB also donated RM10,000 to YKN at the event.

Also present were TNB's chief ventures officer and PKPI president Datuk Nor Azman Mufti; Career Enhancement Management Department head and TNB PKPI vice-president Datuk Abdul Aziz Abdul Majid; Kuala Lumpur mayor Datuk Nor Hisham A Dahlan, YKN chief executive officer Datin Paduka Che Asmah Ibrahim, and TNB Security Services Department head and PKPI vice-president Sobri Shafie.

TNB said the cooperation between both parties has long been associated with various corporate social responsibility (CSR) programmes, including the Better Brighter Anjung Kasih programme; Ramadan iftar contribution at Anjung Singgah here; and contribution of hemodialysis machines to YKN Lembah Pantai by TNB Pelitawanis.

The company said it had recently expanded its programmes to cover Penang, Ipoh, Johor Baru and Kota Baru.

The homeless engagement programme is TNB's latest initiative, following previous other CSR initiatives for the underprivileged including financial aid, school supplies, food delivery and home refurbishment.
